

Psalm 86:1-10, 16-17.

The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- 1 Incline your ear to me, O God, and answer me: for I am poor and in misery.
- 2 Preserve my life, for I am faithful: My God, save your servant who trusts in you.
- 3 Be merciful to me, O Lord: for I call to you all the day long.
- 4 O make glad the soul of your servant: for I put my hope in you, O Lord.
- 5 For you, Lord, are good and forgiving: of great and continuing kindness to all who call upon you.
- 6 Hear my prayer, O Lord: and give heed to the voice of my supplication.
- 7 In the day of my trouble I call upon you: for you will surely answer.
- 8 Among the gods there is none like you, O Lord: nor are there any deeds like yours.
- 9 All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you: O Lord, they shall glorify your name.
- 10 For you are great and do marvellous things: and you alone are God.
- 16 Turn to me and be merciful, give your strength to your servant: and save the child of your handmaid.
- 17 Show me some token of your goodness: that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed, because you, Lord, are my helper and my comforter.

A Prayer at this Time	A Blessing
Loving God, source of healing and comfort, at this time of fear, fill us with your grace, that the sick may be made whole, the virus contained and a cure found. Strengthen those who care for the sick, calm the anxious, and protect the most vulnerable in the power of the Spirit and in the faith of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.	The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

Reflection

Jesus shows us that God's mission is to claim the priority in our lives. May we never be afraid of dying to self so that we may be born anew, taking our part in the mystery of God's mission to the world. Help us, Lord, to bring love in your name to a world crying out for it in these unusual times.

Pray that nothing will deter us from making love of God and love of neighbour our first priority.

Give thanks for those who engage in the mystery of God's mission both here and overseas.

My wife Leeza and I have downloaded the app and I encourage everyone to do likewise. As Christians we should be models of civil obedience in these measures.

COVID-19 Update

It is with joy that I advise Bishop Murray has given permission for public worship to resume at St Cuthbert's, Tweed Heads.

Services will recommence on Sunday 28th of June, 2020.
We will have two Sunday Services at 9:00am and at 11:00am.

Because of the limited numbers allowed at each service, a key difference will be that to attend worship you will need to make a booking. This can be done by calling the Parish Office on 07 5536 1060, on the Thursday or Friday before, between 9am and 12noon.

The key elements of the NSW public health restrictions which continue to apply to places of worship include:

- Maximum of 50 persons in the congregation
- Contact details of each person to be recorded and kept on file for 28 days
- Physical distancing rules to be observed
- No congregational singing
- No use of objects involving touch by multiple persons (hymn books etc)

• Holy Communion will only be offered in the form of the consecrated bread.

Directions from COVIDSafe Wardens will need to be strictly adhered to.

Morning tea will not be held at this time.

Members of our Faith Community who are in high risk categories (eg over 70yrs, pre existing health conditions) are encouraged to consider still staying at home. Readings, Reflections and Pew Bulletins will continue to be emailed out.

If you have any queries please do not hesitate to call me. I would like to thank you for your prayers and patience at this time, and look forward to worshipping God together with you in person.

God Bless
Dway
