- <sup>10</sup> All creation praises you, O Lord:
and your faithful servants bless your name.
- <sup>11</sup> They speak of the glory of your kingdom:
and tell of your great might,
- <sup>12</sup> That the whole earth may know your mighty acts:
and the glorious splendour of your kingdom.
- <sup>13</sup> Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom:
and your dominion endures through all generations.

and faithful in all his dealings.

to all who call upon him in truth.

A Prayer at this Time

Loving God,
source of healing and comfort,
at this time of fear,
fill us with your grace,
that the sick may be made whole,
the virus contained and a cure found.
Strengthen those who care for the sick,
calm the anxious,
and protect the most vulnerable
in the power of the Spirit
and in the faith of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Blessing

The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Sentence: The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; ask therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.
Luke 10.2

Collect: Almighty God, who inspired your servant Luke the physician to set forth in his gospel the love and healing power of your Son: graciously continue in your Church this love and power to heal, to the praise and glory of your name; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reflection

St Luke, Evangelist and Martyr – Sunday 18 October 2020

Why do we celebrate the saints? Because they encourage us in our closer following of the Lord Jesus. Luke is traditionally thought of as a physician. He focuses more than other Gospel writers on Jesus' ministry with women, and His ministry of healing.

Luke is mentioned in other parts of the New Testament, in the rather plaintive Epistle reading for today, and other letters of Paul, as well as in his second book - Acts - where at several stages the narrative changes from they to we.

Clearly Luke was at the forefront in the early spread of the Gospel and is the perhaps the only Gentile to write in the New Testament.

We give thanks for the life and work of St Luke and pray for the continued grace and power of Christ in the ministry of healing.

Give thanks for the work and witness of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Anglican Council
