

Psalm 130

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice;
- ² O let your ears consider well: the voice of my supplication.
- ³ If you, Lord, should note what we do wrong: who then, O Lord, could stand?
- ⁴ But there is forgiveness with you so that you shall be feared.
- ⁵ I wait for the Lord, my soul waits for him: and in his word is my hope.
- ⁶ My soul looks for the Lord: more than watchmen for the morning, more, I say, than watchmen for the morning.
- ⁷ O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy and with him is ample redemption.
- ⁸ He will redeem Israel: from the multitude of their sins.

A Prayer at this Time

Loving God,
source of healing and comfort,
at this time of fear, fill us with your grace,
that the sick may be made whole,
the virus contained and the vaccines be effectively distributed. Strengthen those who care for the sick, calm the anxious,
and protect the most vulnerable
in the power of the Spirit
and in the faith of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayer of the Week

O God,
who for our redemption
gave your only-begotten Son
to suffer death upon a cross,
and by his glorious resurrection
delivered us from the power of the enemy:
grant us so to die daily to sin
that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Diocesan Prayer

God in whom we live, and move and have our being,
we thank you for Jesus Christ who is the Good News.
By the power of your Holy Spirit, enable us to be people who transform lives, make disciples and grow communities,
that your glory may be revealed in all creation.
We pray through your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Reflection

The writer of Psalm 130 knows the depths of despair and from that state he cries out to the Lord, because with the Lord there is mercy and ample redemption. And so it is for us: if we feel hopeless or miserable because of some situation that's tumbling over our heads, crashing like waves all over us, then all we need to do is turn to the one who can rescue any of us from the multitude of their sins. Praise God for such abundant mercy and care

- Pray for all those who find themselves overwhelmed by circumstances – whether of their own making or because of the folly of others. Pray that God will lift them out of their distress and strengthen their heart.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of Central Africa, especially in Zambia.

Can you Help

As cleaning is still required after each time the church is used, we are asking for volunteers to assist us. If you can help with this, please contact Nicola in the church office.

Tweed Coast Christian Education Association

The visit we had from Terry and Jemma from the TCCEA was only brief but inspiring about the work they are doing to help the youth of our community. As Jemma touched on, they do require donations to keep this project running. We have pledge forms on the table at the back of the church if you would like to donate. All donations are tax deductible.
