

Psalm 130

¹ Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice;

² O let your ears consider well: the voice of my supplication.

³ If you, Lord, should note what we do wrong: who then, O Lord, could stand?

⁴ But there is forgiveness with you: so that you shall be feared.

⁵ I wait for the Lord, my soul waits for him: and in his word is my hope.

⁶ My soul looks for the Lord: more than watchmen for the morning, more, I say, than watchmen for the morning.

⁷ O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy:
and with him is ample redemption.

⁸ He will redeem Israel: from the multitude of their sins.

A Prayer at this Time

Loving God,
source of healing and comfort,
at this time of fear, fill us with your grace,
that the sick may be made whole,
the virus contained and the vaccines be effectively distributed. Strengthen those who care for the sick, calm the anxious, and protect the most vulnerable in the power of the Spirit and in the faith of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayer of the Week

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech you,
the spirit to think and do always such things as are right,
that we, who cannot do anything that
is good without you,
may by you be enabled to live
according to your will;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Diocesan Prayer

God in whom we live, and move and have our being,
we thank you for Jesus Christ who is the Good News.
By the power of your Holy Spirit, enable us to be people who transform lives, make disciples and grow communities,
that your glory may be revealed in all creation.
We pray through your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Reflection

Today St Paul gives the Church at Ephesus rules for behaviour to ensure that their community life really reflects the new life into which they have been called. These rules for behaviour are good for the Church today – as St Paul says, 'Do not make room for the devil'.

- Give thanks for all who build up the body of Christ by their encouragement and example.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan.
