

Psalm 22: 1-15

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ My God, my God, why have you forsaken me: why are you so far from helping me and from the words of my groaning?
² My God, I cry to you by day, but you do not answer: and by night also I take no rest.
³ But you continue holy: you that are the praise of Israel.
⁴ In you our forebears trusted: they trusted, and you delivered them;
⁵ To you they cried and they were saved: they put their trust in you and were not confounded.
⁶ But as for me, I am a worm and no man: the scorn of all and despised by the people.
⁷ Those that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips at me and wag their heads, saying,
⁸ 'He trusted in the Lord—let him deliver him: let him deliver him, if he delights in him.'
⁹ But you are he that took me out of the womb: that brought me to lie at peace on my mother's breast.
¹⁰ On you have I been cast since my birth: you are my God, even from my mother's womb.
¹¹ O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to help.
¹² Many oxen surround me: fat bulls of Bashan close me in on every side.
¹³ They gape wide their mouths at me: like lions that roar and rend.
¹⁴ I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart within my breast is like melting wax.
¹⁵ My mouth is dried up like a potsherd: and my tongue clings to my gums.

A Prayer at this Time

Loving God,
source of healing and comfort,
at this time of fear, fill us with your grace,
that the sick may be made whole,
the virus contained and the vaccines be effectively distributed. Strengthen those who care for the sick, calm the anxious, and protect the most vulnerable in the power of the Spirit and in the faith of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Prayer of the Week

Almighty God,
in your wisdom you have so ordered our earthly life that we must walk by faith and not by sight: give us such trust in your fatherly care that in the face of all perplexities we may give proof of our faith by the courage of our lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Diocesan Prayer

God in whom we live, and move and have our being,
we thank you for Jesus Christ who is the Good News.
By the power of your Holy Spirit, enable us to be people who transform lives, make disciples and grow communities, that your glory may be revealed in all creation.
We pray through your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Mark 10.29-30

Collect: Merciful God,
in your Son you call not the righteous but sinners to repentance:

Reflection

Psalms 22 speaks very honestly of the hard times that come with being human, times when God might seem far away. 'My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?' says the Psalmist. These are the words Jesus cried out on the cross, in the depth of his suffering. And yet Jesus himself reminds us that God does not forsake us, that there is hope and wholeness for the world. Right there on the cross, Jesus embodies the presence of God with us, holding the broken and hurting world in his outstretched, crucified arms.

- Reflect on your life right now. What hurts? What is hard? Place all your hurt and suffering in Jesus' gentle and compassionate arms. Pray that he will fill you with hope and wholeness.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Melanesia.
