

Psalm 23

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.
- ² He will make me lie down in green pastures: and lead me beside still waters.
- ³ He will refresh my soul: and guide me in right pathways for his name's sake.
- ⁴ Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for you are with me, your rod and your staff comfort me.
- ⁵ You spread a table before me in the face of those who trouble me: you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.
- ⁶ Surely your goodness and loving-kindness will follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Collect: Gracious God,
you sent Jesus, the good shepherd,
to gather us together: may we not wander from his flock,

Acts 11: 1-8; Psalm 148; Revelation 21: 1-6; John 13: 31-35

Reflection

Today is often known as Good Shepherd Sunday because of the Gospel reading. In some parts of the Church it is also known as Vocations Sunday, where people think about their own vocation, and how they might support others', particularly in terms of the Church's ordained ministry. If I were to examine myself, would I find areas of my life where I had felt God's call and responded to it? Have I helped others to discern their vocation and respond? Help me to hear your call, Good Shepherd, that I might do what you would have me do. Help me to encourage others on their journey towards the Church, whether to become priests, or members of religious communities, or as faithful lay people. May your sheep hear and heed your voice, O Lord.

- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican
- Church of Papua New Guinea, remembering especially today the staff and students at Newton Theological College in Popondetta.
