

Psalm 104: 26-36

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ²⁶ Lord, how various are your works: in wisdom you have made them all, and the earth is full of your creatures.
- ²⁷ There is the wide, immeasurable sea: there move living things without number, great and small;
- ²⁸ There go the ships, to and fro: and there is that Leviathan whom you formed to sport in the deep.
- ²⁹ These all look to you: to give them their food in due season.
- ³⁰ When you give it to them, they gather it: when you open your hand they are satisfied with good things.
- ³¹ When you hide your face, they are troubled: when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
- ³² When you send forth your spirit they are created: and you renew the face of the earth.
- ³³ May the glory of the Lord endure for ever: may the Lord rejoice in his works.
- ³⁴ If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble: if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.
- ³⁵ I will sing to the Lord as long as I live: I will praise my God while I have any being.
- ³⁶ May my meditation be pleasing to him: for my joy shall be in the Lord.

Reflection

Today we read St Luke's account of the descent of the Holy Spirit on to the disciples in Jerusalem. Rushing wind was heard and tongues of fire were seen. Some heard their own languages from around the Mediterranean being spoken by Galileans. Meanwhile, as ever, some scoffed and mocked. Peter assures the crowd that this is the fulfillment of the prophecy of Joel, after which time everyone who calls on the Name of the Lord will be saved. If I were to examine myself, would I find times in my life where I had mocked others for their faith in God? How might I look for the Spirit in my life?

- Jesus Christ, Lord of the Church, help me to recognise when your Spirit is asking me to do something, and to do precisely that.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East.
