THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST 26TH JUNE 2022

WELCOME

- 1 I call to my God, I cry out toward him: I call to my God, and surely he will answer.
2 In the day of my distress I seek the Lord, I stretch out my hands to him by night: my soul is poured out without ceasing, it refuses all comfort.
11 I will declare the mighty acts of the Lord: I will call to mind your wonders of old.
12 I will think on all that you have done: and meditate upon your works.
13 Your way, O God, is holy: who is so great a god as our God?
14 You are the God that works wonders: you made known your power among the nations;
15 By your mighty arm you redeemed your people: the children of Jacob and Joseph.
16 The waters saw you, O God, the waters saw you and were afraid: the depths also were troubled.
17 The clouds poured out water, the heavens spoke: and your arrows darted forth.
18 The voice of your thunder was heard in the whirlwind: your lightnings lit the world, the earth shuddered and quaked.
19 Your way was in the sea, your path in the great waters: and your footsteps were not seen.
20 You led your people like sheep: by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Reflection

In his letter to the Galatians, St Paul lists the fruit of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. He contrasts them with the 'works of the flesh' – which will lead us to lose our place as an inheritor of the kingdom of God. By working to bring the fruit of the Spirit to the forefront in our lives, we bring ourselves closer to being numbered among the citizens of God's kingdom. If I were to examine myself, would I find areas in my life that I could work on to bring out more of the fruit of the Spirit?

- Jesus Christ, Son of Man, help me to live a life marked by the fruit of your Spirit, so that I may ever come closer to you.
- Give thanks for the Church of Pakistan, remembering especially today their ministry in a predominantly non Christian context.
