

Psalm 52

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ Why, you that are powerful, do you boast all the day long: of mischief done to those that are faithful to God?
- ² You contrive destroying slanders: your tongue is like a sharpened razor, it cuts deceitfully.
- ³ You have loved evil, and not good: to tell lies, rather than to speak the truth.
- ⁴ You love all words that may do hurt: and every deceit of the tongue.
- ⁵ But God will destroy you utterly: he will snatch you away and pluck you out of your dwelling, he will uproot you from the land of the living.
- ⁶ The righteous shall see it, and fear: they shall laugh you to scorn, and say,
- ⁷ 'Here is one who did not take God for strength: but trusted to the abundance of riches, and found strength in slander.'
- ⁸ As for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I will trust in the goodness of God for ever and ever.
- ⁹ I will always give you thanks, for this was you're doing: I will glorify your name before the faithful, for it is good to praise you.

Reflection

Today we read of Jesus visiting his friends, Martha and Mary. Martha is the ever-practical and ever-busy sister. She makes a good representative for us, with all the busyness that characterises our lives. Jesus tells her to follow her sister's example – that is, to be more focused on the moment and not to neglect things that are more contemplative and less active.

- Jesus Christ, you are the focus of our prayer. Help us to rid our lives of unnecessary hustle and bustle so that we have time for contemplation, time just to experience the moments you give us, and the experience of being with you in prayer.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Nippon Sei Ko Kai, the Anglican Church of Japan.

Prayer of the Week

O God, you alone can order our unruly wills and affections:
teach us to love what you command, and to desire what you promise, that, among the changes and chances of this world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
