

Psalm 14

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- <sup>1</sup> Fools have said in their hearts 'There is no God': they have all become vile and abominable in their doings, there is not one that does good.
- <sup>2</sup> The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of Adam: to see if there were any who would act wisely and seek after God.
- <sup>3</sup> But they have all turned out of the way, they have all alike become corrupt: there is none that does good, no not one.
- <sup>4</sup> Are all the evildoers devoid of understanding: who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not pray to the Lord?
- <sup>5</sup> They shall be struck with terror: for God is with the company of the righteous.
- <sup>6</sup> Though they frustrate the poor in their hopes: surely the Lord is their refuge.
- <sup>7</sup> O that deliverance for Israel might come forth from Zion: when the Lord turns again the fortunes of his people, then shall Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

Reflection

This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them. The Pharisees' jibe is something that Jesus may well have worn as a badge of honour. How lucky for us that this fellow Jesus does precisely that. Were it up to our own level of righteousness we would never be able to feast with Jesus, but that is what he calls us to do week by week at the Eucharistic feast. What a joy that is. George Herbert expresses his eagerness for the Eucharist in his 1633 poem, The Banquet:

Welcome sweet and sacred cheer, Welcome deare; With me, in me, live and dwell: For thy neatnesse passeth sight, Thy delight Passeth tongue to taste or tell.

- Lord Jesus Christ, Priest and Victim in the Eucharistic feast, feed me now and forever. May I always be eager to receive you.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan.
