

Psalm 79: 1-9

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ O God, the heathen have come into your land: they have defiled your holy temple, they have made Jerusalem a heap of stones.
- ² They have given the dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the air: and the flesh of your faithful ones to the wild beasts of the earth.
- ³ Their blood they have spilt like water on every side of Jerusalem: and there is none to bury them.
- ⁴ We have become a mockery to our neighbours: the scorn and laughing-stock of those about us.
- ⁵ How long, O Lord, shall your anger be so extreme: will your jealous fury burn like fire?
- ⁶ Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you: on the kingdoms that have not called upon your name.
- ⁷ For they have devoured Jacob: and made his dwelling-place a desolation.
- ⁸ Do not remember against us the sin of former times: but let your compassion hasten to meet us, for we are brought very low.
- ⁹ Help us, O God our saviour, for the honour of your name:

Prayer of the Week

.Loving Father, whose Son Jesus Christ has taught us that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters we do also for him: give us the will to be the servant of others as he was the servant of all, who gave up his life and died for us, and yet lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Reflection

Today we read St Luke's account of the Parable of the Dishonest Manager. The manager is dishonest and is commended by his master for being shrewd. It's hard to know what to make of it. Nonetheless, the message at the end of the passage is clear: No slave can have two masters – if we choose to serve God then we have to accept that to serve him means having no other call on our lives. We ought not to be enslaved by materialism.

- Jesus Christ, serving you is perfect freedom. Help me to choose you as the priority in my life, for you are worth more than gold or silver.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of La Iglesia Filipina Independiente, the Philippine Independent Church.
