

Psalm 119: 137-144

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- 137 Righteous are you, Lord God: and just are your judgements;
- 138 The commands that you have commanded: are exceedingly righteous and true.
- 139 Zeal and indignation have choked my mouth: because my enemies have forgotten your words.
- 140 Your word has been tried in the fire: and therefore your servant loves it.
- 141 I am small and of no account: but I have not forgotten your precepts.
- 142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness: and your law is the truth.
- 143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: but your commandments are my delight.
- 144 The righteousness of your commands is everlasting: O give me understanding, and I shall live.

Reflection

Today Luke tells us about the encounter between Jesus and Zacchaeus, a rich tax collector, a despised collaborator with the Roman occupiers of the province. People took the opportunity to grumble about Jesus going to Zacchaeus' house. Do we ever grumble about the good things that God is doing in the world?

- Give praise for all the wonderful things happening in God's name around the world.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East.
