

Psalm 33: 1-12

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous: for it befits the just to praise him.
- ² Give the Lord thanks upon the harp: and sing his praise to the lute of ten strings.
- ³ O sing him a new song: make sweetest melody, with shouts of praise.
- ⁴ For the word of the Lord is true: and all his works are faithful.
- ⁵ He loves righteousness and justice: the earth is filled with the loving-kindness of the Lord.
- ⁶ By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and their numberless stars by the breath of his mouth.
- ⁷ He gathered the waters of the sea as in a water-skin: and laid up the deep in his treasures.
- ⁸ Let the whole earth fear the Lord: and let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
- ⁹ For he spoke, and it was done: he commanded, and it stood fast.
- ¹⁰ The Lord frustrates the counsels of the nations: he brings to nothing the devices of the peoples.
- ¹¹ But the counsels of the Lord shall endure for ever: the purposes of his heart from generation to generation.
- ¹² Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord: the people he chose to be his own possession.

Reflection

The Israelites demand a king as ruler instead of a judge – Samuel warns about the likely outcomes of that request, but the people did not listen. I think we can be like that sometimes and in the gospel we read of Matthew's calling and two healings - the hemorrhaging woman and the leader's daughter. Jesus calls Matthew to follow him and in turn the woman and the leader call on Jesus. It is a reminder that we are called to follow Jesus and to take that call out to the boundaries, just as Jesus was known and often challenged for his connections with tax collectors and others on the boundaries of society.

- Pray for the courage to listen and be challenged out of our comfort zone, to reflect Jesus' love and compassion, through words and actions.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of WontulpBi-Buya College in Cairns and Nungalinga College in Darwin.
