

Psalm 139: 1-5, 12-18

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

- ¹ O Lord, you have searched me out and known me: you know when I sit or when I stand, you comprehend my thoughts long before.
- ² You discern my path and the places where I rest: you are acquainted with all my ways.
- ³ For there is not a word on my tongue: but you, Lord, know it altogether.
- ⁴ You have encompassed me behind and before: and have laid your hand upon me.
- ⁵ Such knowledge is too wonderful for me: so high that I cannot endure it.
- ¹² For you have created my inward parts: you knit me together in my mother's womb.
- ¹³ I will praise you, for you are to be feared: fearful are your acts, and wonderful your works.
- ¹⁴ You knew my soul, and my bones were not hidden from you: when I was formed in secret, and woven in the depths of the earth.
- ¹⁵ Your eyes saw my limbs when they were yet imperfect: and in your book were all my members written;
- ¹⁶ Day by day they were fashioned: and not one was late in growing.
- ¹⁷ How deep are your thoughts to me, O God: and how great is the sum of them!
- ¹⁸ Were I to count them, they are more in number than the sand: were I to come to the end, I would still be with you.

Reflection

As Ordinary Time has commenced, Jesus continues to call his disciples to follow him. When Jesus calls us by name to follow him, the invitation is to "come and see." Come and see what life with Jesus is like, for he knows who we are. As we continue our discipleship with Jesus, we will learn more and more about him, we will see more of heaven and God's interaction with us.

- God, may I declare who Jesus is as I follow him and you open heaven to me.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Melanesian Brotherhood, the Melanesian Sisterhood, the Society of St Francis and the Sisters of the Church who minister throughout the Pacific Islands.
