

Psalm 130

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

1 Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice;

2 O let your ears consider well: the voice of my supplication.

3 If you, Lord, should note what we do wrong: who then, O Lord, could stand?

4 But there is forgiveness with you: so that you shall be feared.

5 I wait for the Lord, my soul waits for him: and in his word is my hope.

6 My soul looks for the Lord:
more than watchmen for the morning,
more, I say, than watchmen for the morning.

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy:
and with him is ample redemption.

8 He will redeem Israel: from the multitude of their sins.

Reflection

Today's gospel sees Jesus healing a woman with a kind of haemorrhagic disease as well as Jairus' daughter who was at the point of death. Jesus tells the woman that her faith has made her whole and he tells Jairus not to fear, but rather, to believe. He says to the girl, Talitha cum – little girl, get up, in Aramaic. That phrase still means the same thing to those who speak Assyrian, otherwise known as neo-Aramaic, in the streets of Fairfield and surrounding suburbs in Sydney. Members of the Assyrian Church of the East, whose historic patriarchate is based in Iraq, now live in significant numbers in Sydney and Melbourne,

- Pray for the Church's healing ministry through the Guild of St Raphael, and through hospitals and clinics throughout the Anglican Communion.
- Give thanks for the witness of St George's College in East Jerusalem, praying that they will be able to withstand the lack of student pilgrims because of their dearth at this time of fighting

Prayer of the Week

O God,

who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to suffer death upon a cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of the enemy; grant us so to die daily to sin that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
