

Psalm 45.1-2, 6-9

1 My heart is astir with fine phrases,
I make my song for a king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 You are the fairest of men, grace flows from your lips:
therefore has God blessed you for ever and ever.

6 Your throne is the throne of God, it endures for ever:
and the sceptre of your kingdom is a righteous sceptre.

7 You have loved righteousness and hated evil: therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.

8 All your garments are fragrant with myrrh, aloes and cassia:
music from ivory palaces makes you glad.

9 Kings' daughters are among your noble women:
the queen is at your right hand in gold of Ophir.

Reflection

How do we keep ourselves “unstained by the world”? Through prayer and listening to Christ's voice above all others, especially the voices of the world that tempt us away from the voice of our Lord.

- Make clean our hearts, O God, and renew a right spirit within us that we may seek to serve you in joy and gladness.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of South-East Asia.

Prayer of the Week

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
