

Psalm 130

1 Out of the depths have I called to you, O Lord:
Lord, hear my voice;

2 O let your ears consider well: the voice of my supplication.

3 If you, Lord, should note what we do wrong:
who then, O Lord, could stand?

4 But there is forgiveness with you: so that you shall be feared.

5 I wait for the Lord, my soul waits for him:
and in his word is my hope.

6 My soul looks for the Lord: more than watchmen for the morning, more, I say, than watchmen for the morning.

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy:
and with him is ample redemption.

8 He will redeem Israel:
from the multitude of their sins.

Reflection

The human condition is so limited; hardness of heart, ignorance, prone to greed and falsehood and even, sometimes, murderous intent. Thank God that God does not despair! And indeed sent all that we need to live a renewed life, and eternal life, Jesus Christ himself, the bread of heaven.

- We give thanks that God has given us all that is good, and all that we need to be good, and we pray that we will share this generosity with all in need.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Primate of Australia, the Most Rev Geoff Smith

Prayer of the Week

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech you, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right, that we, who cannot do anything that is good without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
