

Psalm 127

- 1 Unless the Lord builds the house: their labour is but lost that build it.
- 2 Unless the Lord keeps the city: the watchmen watch in vain.
- 3 It is in vain that you rise up early and go so late to rest, eating the bread of toil: for the Lord bestows honour—and on those whom he loves.
- 4 Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord:
and the fruit of the womb is his gift.
- 5 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior: are the children of one's youth.
- 6 Happy the man who has his quiver full of them: he will not be put to shame when he confronts his enemies at the gate.

Reflection

The words of the gospel are a challenge not only to people such as myself (who professionally do wear long robes!), but to all of us who are likely to have status in some form or other. The poor widow gave out of her poverty. And all of us before God have nothing except what God has given us.

- May we be like the widow, giving generously from our hearts, rather than sharing a few crumbs of the abundance God has given us.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East

Prayer of the Week

Blessed Lord, you have caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that, by patience and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.
