

Psalm 31.9-18

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

9 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: my eye wastes away for grief, my throat also and my inward parts.

10 For my life wears out in sorrow, and my years with sighing: my strength fails me in my affliction, and my bones are consumed.

11 I am become the scorn of all my enemies: and my neighbours wag their heads in derision.

12 I am a thing of horror to my friends: and those that see me in the street shrink from me.

13 I am forgotten like one dead and out of mind: I have become like a broken vessel.

14 For I hear the whispering of many: and fear is on every side;

15 While they plot together against me: and scheme to take away my life.

16 But in you, Lord, have I put my trust: I have said 'You are my God.'

17 All my days are in your hand: O deliver me from the power of my enemies and from my persecutors.

18 Make your face to shine upon your servant: and save me for your mercy's sake.

Reflection

Holy Week begins with Jesus taking his city not as a Roman governor would on a decked-out warhorse, but on a donkey, the beast of burden for all the poor. The crowd goes crazy, lining the streets with their clothes and palms and shouting Hosanna, which means 'save us'. By the end of the week things will be radically different. Jesus will die on the cross, virtually alone, nailed there by our sins. But one thing is certain: we will be saved.

- Pray for all who know the pain and desolation of being abandoned by friends and family. May they all find solace and comfort.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the CAPA, the Council of the Anglican Provinces of Africa.

Prayer of the Week

Almighty and everlasting God, of your tender love towards us you sent your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all should follow the example of his great humility: mercifully grant that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
