

Psalm 104.26-36

- <sup>26</sup> Lord, how various are your works: in wisdom you have made them all, and the earth is full of your creatures.
- <sup>27</sup> There is the wide, immeasurable sea: there move living things without number, great and small;
- <sup>28</sup> There go the ships, to and fro: and there is that Leviathan whom you formed to sport in the deep.
- <sup>29</sup> These all look to you: to give them their food in due season.
- <sup>30</sup> When you give it to them, they gather it: when you open your hand they are satisfied with good things.
- <sup>31</sup> When you hide your face, they are troubled: when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
- <sup>32</sup> When you send forth your spirit they are created: and you renew the face of the earth.
- <sup>33</sup> May the glory of the Lord endure for ever: may the Lord rejoice in his works.
- <sup>34</sup> If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble: if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.
- <sup>35</sup> I will sing to the Lord as long as I live: I will praise my God while I have any being.
- <sup>36</sup> May my meditation be pleasing to him: for my joy shall be in the Lord.

Reflection

The hubris that resulted in the Tower of Babylon, and the divisiveness of multiple languages is healed by the coming of the Holy Spirit. People from all around the then-known world suddenly could understand one another as language barriers melted away. From a sermon of a sixth-century African preacher, name unknown: 'If anyone says to one of us: "You have received the Holy Spirit. Why do you not speak in tongues?", he should reply: "I do speak in tongues. For I am in the Body of Christ, the Church, which speaks in every tongue. For what did God signify by the presence of the Holy Spirit if it was not that His Church would speak in every tongue?"

- Lord, help me to speak intelligibly to those around me about you, your Son and the Holy Spirit.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan.
