

Psalm 107.1-9; 43

*A Prayer Book for Australia, © 1995,
The Anglican Church of Australia Trust Corporation*

1 O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good: for his loving mercy is for ever.

2 Let the Lord's redeemed say so: whom he has redeemed from the hand of the enemy,

3 And gathered in from every land, from the east and from the west: from the north and from the south.

4 Some went astray in the wilderness and in the desert: and found no path to an inhabited city;

5 They were hungry and thirsty: and their heart fainted within them.

6 Then they cried to the Lord in their distress: and he took them out of their trouble.

7 He led them by the right path: till they came to an inhabited city.

8 Let them thank the Lord for his goodness: and for the wonders that he does for the children of Adam;

9 For he satisfies the thirsty: and fills the hungry with good things.

43 Whoever is wise, let them observe these things: and consider the loving-kindness of the Lord.

Reflection

Jesus tells us the Parable of the Rich Fool – someone who wants to store up his harvest rather than worrying about the state of his soul. How can we worry less about material things and concentrate on building up our love for God and for our neighbours?

- Jesus Christ, more precious than gold or diamonds, help me to seek those things that are worthy of storing up in my soul so that I will not live to die a rich fool.
- Give thanks for ABM's networking partner, Episcopal Relief and Development (ERD), based in the United States of America.

Prayer of the Week

Almighty God,
whose beloved Son for our sake willingly endured the agony and shame of the cross:
give us courage and patience to take up our cross daily and follow him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Prayer for a New Incumbent

Bountiful God, give to this parish a faithful pastor who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments an encourager who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling. Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience and give to us warm and generous hearts for Jesus Christ's sake.
Amen.
