

Psalm 50.1-8, 23-24

- <sup>1</sup> The Lord our God, the Mighty One, has spoken: and summoned the earth, from the rising of the sun to its setting in the west.
- <sup>2</sup> From Zion, perfect in beauty: God has shone out in glory.
- <sup>3</sup> Our God is coming, he will not keep silent: before him is devouring fire, and tempest whirls about him.
- <sup>4</sup> He calls to the heavens above: and to the earth, so he may judge his people.
- <sup>5</sup> 'Gather to me my faithful ones: those who by sacrifice made a covenant with me.'
- <sup>6</sup> The heavens shall proclaim his righteousness: for God himself is judge.
- <sup>7</sup> 'Listen my people, and I will speak: O Israel, I am God your God, and I will give my testimony.
- <sup>8</sup> 'It is not for your sacrifices that I reprove you: for your burnt-offerings are always before me.
- <sup>23</sup> 'O consider this, you who forget God: lest I tear you in pieces, and there be no one to save you.
- <sup>24</sup> 'He honours me who brings sacrifice of thanksgiving: and to him who keeps to my way I will show the salvation of God.'

Reflection

St Luke writes that Jesus tells us to be alert. But alert for what? The answer is for the coming of the master. So we should not be wasting our time doing things that do not prepare for that arrival. We should be profligate in loving others as we love ourselves. That is what Jesus wants us to do.

- Jesus Christ, King of love, help me to prepare for your coming by loving others as you would want. May love of others become a central characteristic of my life.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of South-East Asia.
